

Template for the publication under Section 4 of Right To Information Act

Note 1 – Though proactive disclosure is covered under section 4 it is felt that the institutions covered under 2(h) A & B should also be listed out as a part of proactive disclosure. We have included two separate tables for that purpose.

Note 2 – Each department must prepare a plan for computerisation to facilitate proactive disclosure under section 4(1)(A) therefore the departments should publish their policy of computerisation in a separate proforma.

Note 3 – The date of publication of proactive disclosure is a relevant date indicating periodicity & therefore should be invariably mentioned for each subsection of the section 4.

To ensure the logical conclusion of Section 4, the first step required is listing of Public Authorities in the state. Public Authority is defined as any authority or body or institution of self-government established or constituted by or under the Constitution or by any other law made by Parliament or State Legislature & by notification issued or order made by the appropriate Government. It also includes body owned controlled or substantially financed by Government. May it be a Non-Governmental organisation. All such authorities are required to publish, information under sub Section (a)(b)(c)(d) of Section 4. The relevant department in Mantralaya is expected to publish such a list.
